Pairing the bounty of the local fall harvest with the talents of our next generation of great culinary artists, Baltimore Green Works partners with area farmers and Stratford University in a Top Chef-style competition. Audience members and local celebrity judges taste the student-made creations and choose the winning teams. Guests also enjoy live music, dancing, and our Silent Auction!

In-Kind Sponsor

Many of our supporting organizations provide sponsorship to BGW through the provision of goods and services in lieu of a monetary donation. Such opportunities are measured on a case-by-case basis and include such things as advertising, venue space, food, signage, and other tangible goods.
